MPowrx™'s Dr. Nancy Markley named 2016 Startup Canada Award winner for the Prairies region

Calgary, Canada - MPowrx™, a leader in developing innovative health and wellness products, is excited to announce that President & CEO Dr. Nancy Markley has been named the Prairies Regional Award winner for the 2016 Startup Canada Woman Entrepreneur Award, presented by Business Development Bank of Canada.

“It is an honour to be named the 2016 recipient of the Startup Canada Woman Entrepreneur Award,” says Dr. Markley. “I started my company with an entrepreneurial spirit and have worked hard to take it from a local Calgary startup to an international company with sales and distribution in 85+ countries worldwide. I would like to thank my team at MPowrx™ and my family for their support, and look forward to seeing what we can do next!”

The Startup Canada Awards celebrate and distinguish outstanding achievement in advancing Canadian entrepreneurship. The Startup Canada Women Entrepreneur Award is awarded to women entrepreneurs who have impacted Canadian entrepreneurship through exemplary activities and leadership of their companies.

Dr. Markley will be presented with her award on October 25 in Edmonton, Alberta. As a regional winner, she will be pushed forward to the Adjudication Committee to be considered for a national Startup Canada Award.
